Chapter 19

THE MAY FAMILY

Joseph May[8] (Joseph[1], James[2], Nancy[3] , Henry L. Mangum[4], Jim Mangum[5], Eugenia Mangum[6], Mary Jane Gates Palmer[7]) according to family tradition, was born in South Carolina ca 1732 and died on 8 Dec 1829, a man of almost 97 years. It is thought that he was the son of John May of Richmond Co, GA, who died there in 1785. In his will John May names sons John, James, Joseph and William and daughters Sarah Sutton, Sealey Orrick, and Milly Holliday. Joseph owned land in Wilkes County, GA, adjacent to land owned by John May, Sr. It is believed that the May family came to North Carolina by emigrant route of Philadelphia, Maryland, and Virginia. They settled in Alamance, Guilford, and Randolph Counties, Virginia. The May family were planters and slave owners. Family tradition indicates that Joseph May Sr lived in Virginia and Georgia, and served in the 5th South Carolina Regiment during the Revolutionary War, enlisting Apr 5, 1776.[9]

According to family tradition, Joseph May Sr. migrated from South Carolina through Georgia to the Natchez Country in the 1780's. He was in Wilkinson County, MS, by 1805[10]; by 1816 he was in Pike County. He married lst ____ Baker and had three children by her; then he married 2nd: the Widow McLean, ~~1443~~ 9438 widow of Daniel McLean who died in Wilkes Co, GA, in 1783. Miss Baker died in SC in 1778/79. Widow McLean was born before 1789 and died after 1820 in Mississippi. Joseph died in Pike County, now Walthall Co, MS, and was interred on Magee's Creek where he had lived.

II. Known issue of Joseph May and ____ Baker

A. John May b ca 1767, SC, m ca 1806/10 to lst: Mary Farley and 2nd to Elizabeth Barnes Thomas. He died on 7 Jul 1851 in Pike Co, MS. Family traditions holds that he had six children by his first wife and three by his Second.

[10]An interview found in the WPA file on Simpson Co, MS, in the Dept of Archives, Jackson, with Mrs. Gussie May Boggan, notes, "Millhaven is one of the old settlements of the county, and was the site of the old Jaynes saw-mill. This property now belongs to the May estate....Mr. W.R. May having purchased this as the Old Jaynes estate in 1872, located on Strong River just at the River Bridge at D'Lo. There was a small mill located there, a crude affair, but much of the lumber that was used in the Old Capital Building (Jackson) and many buildings in Brandon where the Jaynes family lived, was sawed at this mill and was hauled by ox-teams to the places mentioned. Mr. Lewis C. Gibson, who was connected by marriage to the May family, hauled most of this lumber to Jackson for the Old Capital Building."

Dear Friend:-

As I am about to issue my new Spring and Summer Catalogue, I am looking over my list of "Preferred Customers" and find your name among them.

I am at all times interested in all my customers and I should consider it a favor if you would advise me just how satisfactory the orders were, also how pleased you were on receiving them, and in fact YOUR opinion of our house.

May I not have the pleasure of receiving a letter of approval as a testimonial, and the permission to insert same in my new edition?

It would please me very much if you would comply with my request, and kindly forward me said letter at your earliest convenience.

Thanking you very cordially in advance, I am,

Very truly yours,

of Marion co; MS —

I have a bit of information from my mother (who spent quite a bit of time on this in the 50's. (My brother and I remember the treks deserted graveyards (chalk in hand)!

She has a Joseph May Jr. b 1782 in Georgia, d in Pike Co. She has annotated the place of death with a (?) and the cryptic notation 'Magee's Creek'. Married Clasrissa Daught(e)ry (who was born in Tennessee). Children were: Joda May, Obed May, William N. May, Jared May, Selina May, Magdelena May, E.D. May, and my gr gr grandfather Robert May (b 16 May 1830, d 20 Mar 1914, married Narcissa Cooper). She has some information on Joseph May Sr. b 1732 in S. Carolina, d 1829 (really old) in Pike Co. There is a note that he moved to Mississippii in 1805 and back to S. Car. after his first wife died, then to Georgia, and back to Mississippi. The entry for his wives are (1) _____ Baker (2) Widow McLean. His Children were: John May, James May, and Elizabeth May, by the un-named Miss Baker; and Ethelred May, Joseph May, and Lafayette Littlebury May (by the second wife. Joseph married Clarissa Daughtery (and must have been my gr gr gr gr grandfather (?) There is some more info on these people if you are interested. My mom had such fun at this... perhaps I should get interested!

SYMPATHY

directly to him: 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington, D.C.

People who participate in reorganization will understand it better and develop their own stake in it, he says. Then, when reorganization gets threatened by the congressional and special interest constituencies for each of the 2,000 departments, agencies, commissions, boards and committees in the government, the President can appeal to this public constituency for help.

"It's the President's conviction that in order for reorganization to be successful it's going to have to be a cooperative effort with Congress, and there's going to have to be a broad-based understanding of the objectives of reorganization by the public at large, as well as the broadest possible participation in it," Pettigrew said.

Special interest groups and congressional staffs will be invited to the hearings, seminars, conferences and committees, too, Pettigrew said, "so that everybody has had their say, has had their shot in the decision-making process.

"Then, when something is recommended to Congress it can be properly represented that the best thinking that has been developed previously in the Congress has been looked at and the interest groups who feel that they are very directly affected have been consulted.

"That'll give us the best chance of a successful achievement of our goals," he said.

MAMMA RUTH
AND THE MAY GANG

They call themselves
The May Gang.
They're well known
where they live.
They don't shoot, steal, or rob.
What they do best is give.

Now, they are quite notorious,
And I'll tell you the truth.
Every gang has a leader,
And theirs was Mama Ruth.

But she's no longer with us.
She's with another clan.
God took her to heaven,
To join his angel band.

So we'll try to get along,
Without her as best we can
Until we get to heaven,
To join her in that land.

But for now we shed our tears
As we declare this final truth.
We'll see you in heaven
And we love you,
Mama Ruth

Rodger Bradley

We love you, miss you, and wish that you were here!
Love, The May Gang - - -
